Saturday after a two weeks' sojourn in Philadelphia and other Eastern cities. It will be remembered that Mr. Hurst went as a delegate to the National Cooperative Fraternal Insurance Convention which convened at Philadelphia, and was honored by being made a member of the Executive Committee, which means something, as there were representatives in this convention from every state in the Union and the Dominion of Canada.

Dr. H. C. Burroughs left Monday for a week's visit to his daughter, Mrs. James Spencer, in Louisville. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Betsy Spencer, who has been visiting relatives here for a month.

Some little excitement was created Sunday afternoon about five o'clock when it was reported a mad dog made its appearance on the streets of Millersburg. The animal was reported to have bitten two dogs before it was killed at the South end of town by John Mahar.

Rev. W. A. S. Swift, pastor of the Methodist church, preached his first sermon to his congregation Sunday evening. He was greeted by a large audience, the other churches of the town closing for the occasion. Rev. Swift made a good impression with his hearers.

Dr. J. O. A. Vaught who has just closed his four years as Presiding Elder of the Frankfort District, with his family, will leave today for his new field of labor as Presiding Elder of the Covington District, and will make their home at the Highlands. Dr. Vaught in a measure has been identified with the interests of Millersburg for the past twenty-five years. For four years he was pastor of the church here. After that time his three eldest daughters graduated from the M. F. C. A little more than one year ago he moved his family here from Frankfort. Since then his fourth daughter graduated from the same institution. Mr. Vaught has been a familiar figure among us for a long time and we feel that he and his family are so closely identified with us that they will return to our midst again to make their home. They have always been popular here and their annual visits in the past have been looked forward to with much pleasure.

Mr. Vaught was pastor of the church here during the time of the long bitter struggle between the people of Millersburg and the Methodist Conference over the moving of the Kentucky Wesleyan College from here to Winchester. He was one of the valiant for Millersburg and of course for this we love him and trust that they will soon return among us.

Rev. W. A. S. Swift, who has just been transferred from the Arkansas Conference to the Kentucky Conference, and is the successor of Rev. T.

W. Watts, entered upon his charge here Sunday. We gladly welcome him to our community and trust that in a large measure he and family will take the place of those who have just left us.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Allen entertained Thursday evening with a six o'clock dinner in honor of the sixty-eighth birthday of their father, Mr. J. G. Allen. The dinner was served in courses. The following guests were present: Squire and Mrs. A. C. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tarr, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ingles, Messrs. J. G. Smedley, W. M. Layson and W. V. Shaw.

Rev. T. W. Watts, who has just closed his four years as pastor of the Methodist church here has been assigned to the Scott street church at Covington, with his family, will leave today for his new field of labor. Rev. Watts is an intellectual man and his sermons while with us were all scholarly treats. During the time he has made many friends as has his estimable wife and family. No people ever left the town whose departure has ever been more regretted. Mrs. Watts and Mrs. Fitch, her mother, were both prominent figures in all lines of church work during their time here and notwithstanding the fact that Rev. Watts is a delicate man he has always been keenly alive to every interest in the building up of the community and schools. As a preacher he is not excelled in his own conference, as a citizen he is loved by all who know him, as a Mason his loss in the lodge will be keenly felt. His counsel was of the best and all were better for having him with us. Our loss will be Covington's gain.

Trustees Order School Closed.

Diphtheria, which made its appearance in the Colville school of which Miss Bessie Miller, of this city, is teacher, has prompted the trustees of the district to order the school closed. Forty pupils attend the school regularly and as they have been exposed to the disease it was thought best to close the school for a couple of weeks in an effort to prevent an epidemic.

Returns to Chicago.

Miss Mary Day Ray, who was seriously injured in the ferris wheel accident at the Ewing Fair during the week of August 17, returned to Chicago in company with her aunt, Mrs. T. W. Case. Jaw Broken by Fall.

The wheel which he was riding struck a rail throwing the boy on his face. His jaw was broken, one upper tooth was knocked out and another broken off, all of the lower teeth pushed out of position, the gum torn from the lower teeth and his right wrist was sprained. Although suffering severely from his injuries he walked to the home of his uncle, Mr. Wm. Remington.

Must Pay Fine.

The Court of Appeals Friday affirmed the judgment of the Hopkins Circuit Court in the case of the L. & N. Ry. Co. against the Commonwealth. The company was indicted by the Hopkins county grand jury for its alleged failure to keep at the Madisonville depot, a suitable waiting room for passengers. On conviction the company was fined $250.

The court says that the announced intention of the Railroad Company to remedy conditions constituting the defense, by erecting a new depot, was no defense to a prosecution.

Negro Shot by Another Black.

As a result of an altercation at the fair grounds Saturday night which brought to a close the colored fair which began Wednesday "Shorty" McCoy, a colored porter, employed in the saloon of Abert Lyons, shot and probably fatally wounded Frazier White, also colored.

The cause of the trouble leading up to the tragedy is difficult to obtain as stories are conflicting and although the amphitheatre was crowded with negroes there seems to be no eye witness to the affair, and those who were nearest McCoy at the time of his arrest, disclaim any knowledge of the difficulty leading up to the shooting.

Both McCoy and White bear the reputation of being "bad men," the latter participating in a fight at the fair last year, during which a shooting was narrowly averted.

It is said shortly before the tragedy, McCoy and White met on the promenade and engaged in conversation, which was followed by each using vile language, when McCoy is said to have drawn his revolver and fired at White, the latter falling upon the floor of the stand, apparently dead.

Marshall G. N. McKenney, who with Wm. Tobin, was policing the grounds was beneath the stand, and attracted by the report of the revolver made his way hastily to the scene. McCoy made no effort to escape and was standing a few feet away from his victim.

The shooting caused a panic among the negroes and there was a wild scramble to get out of danger. While the excitement was at its height Marshall McKenney was making an effort to ascertain who fired the shot. Seeing McCoy standing close to the form of White, he approached him to ascertain if he knew the person who did the shooting. The negro was suspecting the intention of the officer was to place him under arrest, informed him he was the person who shot White. Marshall McKenney placed him under arrest and found he still had the revolver with which he shot White in his possession and partly concealed beneath his coat. The negro was turned over to Marshal Tobin, who landed him in jail.

The bullet from the 38 calibre revolver entered White's body about three inches below the collar bone on the right side passing through the body and striking the spinal column, which caused paralysis. He was picked up unconscious and taken to his home on Eighth street, where an examination was made by Dr. Seabee, a colored physician. All efforts to locate the bullet were without result and yesterday afternoon he was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital in Lexington, where an X-ray examination will be made.

White has served several jail sentences for participating in fights and on one occasion escaped from the county jail, being captured later. He is regarded as a dangerous negro.

Coal Oil Stove Exploded.

The fire department was called out last evening in response to a telephone alarm to the residence of Elder J. T. Sharrard on South Main street. A coal oil stove in the kitchen exploded causing some little damage to the woodwork. The fire department made a quick run but the fire was about out when they reached the scene.

Mrs. Harry Clay sustained a severe injury Sunday afternoon as the result of a fall she received. She suffered intense pain from the injury, the extent of which her physician has not been able to determine.

Elder Morgan Board Member.

At the convention of the State Missionary Society held in Frankfort last week Elder Carry E. Morgan, pastor of the Paris Christian church, was chosen as a member of the Executive Board.

By a resolution adopted both political parties are credited with being sincere in their platform declarations of the county unit law.

In resolutions adopted Wednesday by the convention the policy of this great church body in the State election will be to keep hands off so far as either party is concerned.

Both parties are commended for inserting the county unit plan in their platforms, and the Anti-Saloon League is praised for keeping out of partisan politics.

The officers of the State body elected Wednesday are: President, M. G. Buckner, Owensboro; first vice president, W. C. Eldred, Carlisle; second vice president, W. A. Fite, Paducah; recording secretary, B. W. Trimble, H. W. Elliott, Sulphur; executive board, B. C. Dewese, W. F. Smith, E. W. Wallace, Carey E. Morgan, Paris; J. H. McNeill, Winchester; W. S. Irvin, Nicholasville; Smallwood Fund Advisory Committee, H. D. Smith; W. P. Winfrey and George C. Talbott.

J. C. McDaniels, of Millersburg, sold this week to C. L. Guthrie, his undivided one-half interest in two tracts of land containing 220 acres, lying on the Mt. Sterling and Flat Rock pike, adjoining the land of A. B. Thomson and Jos. Wilson. The price paid was $11,886.89.

Large Increase.

The enrollment of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School this season is 25 per cent larger than it has been any previous year says the president. A systematic form of advertising was pursued this year.

A Correction.

An omission in a news note taken from the Daily News, of Dallas, Texas, published in a recent issue of the News left the impression that an entertainment given by Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Morgan, of that city, was for Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Keller, of Paris, when it should have been for Miss Liela Keller (who is visiting in that city).

Blunder Now a Brilliant Maneuvre.

The controversy which followed the naval battle of Santiago and resulted in a court of inquiry to consider charges that practically amounted to an accusation of cowardice against Admiral, then Commodore Winfield S. Schley, has been reopened in a most surprising way by the publication of a history of the Spanish-American War from the pen of Admiral F. E. Chadwick, commander of the flagship New York, and Admiral William T. Sampson's chief of staff at the time of the battle, says a dispatch from New York.

There was much criticism on the part of Sampson's supporters of the course of Admiral Schley for turning his flagship, the Brooklyn, at a critical point of the battle. It was claimed that Schley started to run away from the fight.

Much was made of this point in the controversy that waged between the factions of the navy.

Now comes Admiral Chadwick and shows by his account of the battle that Schley's course in turning the Brooklyn, instead of being a discreditable act, as in fact a brilliant naval maneuver, for which Schley and Capt. Cook should have been given great praise.

Admiral Schley was so bitterly opposed that had it not been for Admiral Dewey's prompt and decisive defense of his action he would have been disgraced.

THEATRICAL.

"THE ROSARY."

When Rowland & Clifford's new play, "The Rosary," by Edward E. Rose, comes to the Paris Grand on Wednesday, October 4, the discriminating public will be given an opportunity to see pictured before them the growing unrest and irreligion of our times. It is a faithful picture of the misery and unhappiness that surely comes upon a man who lacks faith in the supreme good and its triumphs in our world.

Can one evil mind poison a household? Is the human brain capable of producing disastrous effects upon a household by adverse suggestive thoughts?

Do we realize adequately how our mental attitudes influence our lives and the lives about us?

And the answer? Well, the play is the answer.

Bourbon County Crop Conditions

Crop conditions in Bourbon continue to improve with the spreading of tobacco and the maturing of late corn. Garden truck is rolling into town in larger quantities and at prices more reasonable than for many months. Milk and butter supplies have increased as a result of cows grazing upon green grass, and with cooler weather and the moulting season of fowls practically over the supply of eggs have also increased.

Confidence prevails throughout the county as a result of improved conditions and with an indicated yield of tobacco much larger than prevailed one month ago the revenue that will flow into the hands of the farmers and later find their way into the channels of retail trade has had the effect of making things lively in all departments of a busy city.

The unusual activity prevailing in the real estate trade has made transactions numerous in the sale of farms both publicly and privately and from now until the beginning of the crop season of 1912 many exchanges of property are expected. Good farms are in active demand, as reported by the local real estate dealers, and the demand for homes in the city has about consumed every house desirably located, they say.
